GUEST: Jean Marshall/President & CEO

ISSUES: Health, Education and Financial

DATE:5/27/12

Time 13:29 of a 60 minute show

On May 17, the Maryland Dental Action Coalition will proudly present a 5-year state plan to promote the oral health of all Marylanders. The plan addresses Maryland's most critical oral health needs and capitalizes on available resources and data.

Speaking at the celebratory launch event is The Honorable Elijah Cummings, U.S. Congress, a long time supporter of oral health access for children in Maryland and across the United States. Maryland has become a national model in improving the oral health of its citizens over the last decade. The roots of this process go back to 2007, following the untimely death of a 12-year old Maryland child from an untreated dental infection. A state wide Dental Action Committee (DAC) was convened by John M. Colmers, Secretary of the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH), with a specific charge to make recommendations to improve access to oral health care for vulnerable (disadvantaged and/or under insured) children.
